Civil weddings in Bellagio can be celebrated at the Council Chamber, next door to Bellagio Town Hall, at Grand Hotel Villa Serbelloni and at the Lido di Bellagio.

The ceremony lasts approximately 25 minutes.

TOWN HALL: The ceremony can be held both indoors or in the little garden at the entrance to the buildings, which is equipped for the occasion with chairs and tables for the ceremony. It is at the discretion of staff at Bellagio Town Hall to decide if weather conditions allow an outdoor ceremony or not.

Civil weddings at the Town hall can be held from Monday to Saturday (not holidays)

The cost, payable directly to the Municipality of Bellagio is:

From Monday - Friday (during Municipality opening hours): 600.00 euro

From Monday - Friday (out Municipality opening hours): 900.00 euro

Saturday from 9 am to 1 pm: 900.00 euro

Saturday from 2 pm to 6 pm: 1100 euro

For information on availability, a list of documents needed (which will vary depending on the nationality of the couple) and in order to book, contact Clara Cermenati at Bellagio Town Hall anagrafe@comune.bellagio.co.it

For more information about ceremonies at Grand Hotel Villa Serbelloni (inforequest@villaserbelloni.com) and Lido (info@lidodibellagio.com) please get in touch directly with the reservation dept.

By law ceremonies must be held in Italian, which is why there must be an interpreter, whose name should be communicated beforehand, together with the names of the witnesses, to the Municipality of Bellagio. If you do not have an interpreter, the Municipality will appoint one. The cost of this service is 150.00 euro, to be paid directly to the interpreter
